

NAKHON PHANOM UNIVERSITY ANNOUNCEMENT

Subject: No Gift Policy

Fiscal Year 2026

Nakhon Phanom University, as an institution of higher education, is committed to organizational management based on the principles of good governance in order to strengthen integrity and transparency in the administration of the University, thereby ensuring maximum benefit to the nation and its people.

The University hereby declares its commitment to the performance of duties in accordance with the principles of good governance and in strict compliance with all relevant laws, regulations, rules, and official announcements. The University pledges to discharge its responsibilities with honesty, integrity, transparency, and accountability in full accordance with ethical standards and to the best of its ability.

The University hereby declares that all executives and personnel under its purview are united in their determination not to accept gifts or gratuities of any kind in connection with the performance of their duties, whether before, during, or after such performance, as such acceptance may lead to corruption and misconduct, both present and future. The University further pledges to stand firmly against corruption in all its forms, with the aim of cultivating values of honesty and building a strong and sustainable organizational culture of integrity and transparency.

This announcement is hereby proclaimed for general knowledge and compliance.
Announced on this 26 day of November, 2025

(Prof. Emeritus Dr. Thawatchai Supadit)

President

Nakhon Phanom University